FALL 2020 Programming Guidelines

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS A</th>
<th>CLASS B</th>
<th>CLASS C</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Virtual Encouraged</td>
<td>In-Person Considered</td>
<td>In-Person Required</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In-person elements do not impact program outcomes</td>
<td>In-person elements may impact program outcomes</td>
<td>In-person elements substantially impact program outcomes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Programs in this category, if held virtually, do not need additional University approval beyond the typical program planning requirements.</td>
<td>Programs in this category must be approved by the University. The approval process will consider intended outcomes, space availability, and inability of virtual alternatives. A health and safety plan will be required from event organizers.</td>
<td>Programs in this category must be approved by the University. This approval will be granted if space is available to host the program.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

EXAMPLES
- All Meetings
- Conferences
- Group Study
- Open House
- Presentations/Workshops
- Fundraisers
- Orientations
- Group Fitness*
- Film/Video Screening*
- Tabling*

*Permitted in person if outdoors and all health/safety guidelines are followed.

EXAMPLES
- Blood Drives by Appointment
- Flu Vaccines/Health Fairs

State guidelines may result in these capacities changing throughout the semester.