The diagram illustrates the NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP COMPETENCIES, categorized under several domains: Critical Thinking, Social Consciousness/Global Awareness, Initiative, Communication, Commitment, Empowerment, Building Relationships, Self-Directed Learning, Integrity, Innovation, and Self Knowledge. Each domain is further detailed with specific skills and competencies. For example, Critical Thinking includes Problem-solving, Re-evaluating the status quo, Conducting an analysis, Integrating a diversity of ideas, and Obtaining and processing information. The diagram is sourced from Haywood (2014).